

“Go Undercover with a Good Book”

SCCS Literacy Week Feb. 1-5, 2021

Deep Hope: As agents of restoration we will delight in the gift of reading and books and share that joy with others.

Learning Target: I can enjoy reading and activities that celebrate literacy.

Monday, February 1

School- Go undercover with your connection group! Grab a mask, buddy up with students from your connection group and read a book together!

Home-Make a secret message with invisible ink. Have fun!

Tuesday, February 2

School-Arrange a Mystery Reader(s) to read to your class or view a Mystery Reader Video.

Can you guess who is reading?

Home-Play, “Who am I?” using book characters. Choose a character from a favorite book and share 3-5 clues about that character. Can others guess who it is?

Example: I am big and red and friendly, and my best friend is Emily Elizabeth. Who am I?

Wednesday, February 3

School-Chapel: Love Selflessly-Show your selfless love by donating a book to Promise Community Health!

Home-Offer to read devotions at dinner with your family. Praise God for the gift of books and reading!

Thursday, February 4

School-Dark Mode Reading! Grab a flashlight, turn off the lights and read quietly!

Home-Build a reading tent out of blankets or sheets. Grab a flashlight and read a book! Enjoy!

Friday, February 5

School- Disguise yourself as a character in a book! Can we guess who you are?

-Indoor Undercover Agent Book Walk-Grades TK-4

Book Drive-gently used children’s books can be dropped off in the library through Wednesday, February 10.

Books will be donated to Promise Community Health and will be shared with Reach Out and Read, an organization that encourages literacy through offering books in healthcare centers.
